PRE-CONFERENCE EVENT:
REGULATORY SOS! FUNDAMENTALS OF PROFESSIONAL REGULATION
OCTOBER 28TH, 8:30 A.M.-4:30 P.M.

What You Will Learn: The Regulatory SOS! Pre-Conference workshop will appeal to anyone who is seeking to learn more about self-regulation in the Canadian context. This “crash course” day has been designed to provide attendees with content that is both practical and informative, featuring presentations from experts in their respective fields.

Who Should Attend? Past participants of this highly-rated session include: staff who have been working for a regulatory body for less than three years; Board/Council members who wish to learn more about how to ensure public protection through self-regulation; those who may have relied primarily on on-the-job training to gain knowledge and skills in the area; regulators seeking to enhance their peer network; and individuals seeking a “sampler” of topics in regulation.

What Topics Will Be Covered?

- Self-Regulation: Past, Present and Future
- Principles of Good Governance
- Challenges to Good Governance
- Engagement for Positive Social Change
- Facilitating Effective Meetings
- Making Important Connections: Tips for Developing Your Network and Resources

Hands-on activities will link the theory to practice to ensure you come away with knowledge and tips that may be instantly applied to your work.

Join us for an enriching day of learning and sharing!
